The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the fresh air. It felt like a warm blanket after a long winter. The sun was shining brightly, and the birds were chirping happily. I took a deep breath and smiled. This was my first time in a new country, and I was excited to see what it had to offer. The people were friendly and welcoming. They showed me around the city and helped me get settled in.
 I was in good luck. Everything was going just the way I needed it to. I was finally where I belonged.

Attention Deputy J. Schroeder Badge 56

I just wanted to say thank you for the reminder of my speeding. I had been driving 3 1/2 hours with only one small stop at an Amish garden for flowers and was tired & thinking of ~~getting~~ home & did not have my cruise set after stopping for the flowers. I was only thinking of getting home with my dogs in their crates. Thank you for shaking me up. Just 2 miles down the highway, I had a deer jump right in front of my car. Due to your warning I was awake enough to miss hitting the deer. Again thank you for doing your job.

Sincerely

Frank Lucente

Oil

Artist Chris Cummings has a very special way of portraying her subjects so as to draw the viewer emotionally into each scene she paints, whether it be of the sturdy, legendary draft horses bravely pulling their load, or a couple on a romantic sleigh ride through a winter wonderland. Chris' natural artistic abilities and her studies in art and wildlife biology, in which she holds a degree, enable her to boldly express her love for animals and nature. After working briefly as a wildlife biologist for the government, Chris moved to a dairy farm in 1977 and began to paint and illustrate children's books full-time in addition to teaching art at a local college. Since that time, she has specialized in rural scenes and draft horses and does commission work for the top draft horse breeders across the United States and Canada. Chris has shown her work in galleries throughout the country and has won numerous awards.
