LAKE PUCKAWAY ASSOCIATION – DUSTIN ESSELMAN

Dustin Esselman, Chair of the Lake Puckaway Protection Rehabilitation District and Maddy Wegin, Standing Member Town of Mecan, reported:

- the status of the dredge bank project which protects wildlife and fish habitat supervised by Land Conservation and Ducks Unlimited.
- working with the DNR and Cason & Associates on a plan for weed management.
- the success of the walleye fish hatchery.
- the floating platform (two pontoon boats converted into floating rafts with gravel on them) for Tern nesting is successfully being utilized by the endangered species, Common Terns. As of the last two years, it is the largest nesting population of Terns in the State of Wisconsin, which the Lake Districts received an award for. There is hope to add another tern raft.
