PUBLIC COMMENT – none

DISCUSSION AND RECOMMENDATION OF AMBULANCE PLACEMENTS AND BOUNDARIES

No discussion

DISCUSSION AND RECOMMENDATION OF REDUCING OVERTIME

County Administrator Cate Wylie provided copies of Berlin EMS financials. City of Berlin Administrator Sara Rutkowski and Evan Vandenlangenburg provided details and information regarding the overtime. Discussion held on staff shortages and training requirements.

DISCUSSION AND RECOMMENDATION ON INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS

Allan Hoffmann stated that Southern Green Lake County Ambulance Service would like to see the liability requirements lowered for their entity.

DISCUSSION AND RECOMMENDATION ON FUTURE GROWTH

Evan Vandenlangenburg stated that the response time is good with the 3 rigs that Berlin EMS currently has. Feedback from Princeton area residents has been very positive since the addition of the rig in Princeton. Allan Hoffmann stated that response time to the southwest section of the county is still not good and they would like to see an ambulance housed closer to the Kingston/Dalton area. Vandenlangenburg stated that optimal response time in rural areas is 10 minutes. A map will be provided at the next meeting outlining the county coverage and to discuss future placement.

EMPLOYMENT ISSUES

This topic was covered in earlier discussion.
